CRRSAA (a)(4) and ARP (a)(4) Student Aid Portion

Full methodology for CRRSAA (a)(4) and ARP (a)(4) Student Aid Portion is outlined in the institution's HEERF II and III Policy here: <https://www.alexanderpaul.edu/wp-content/uploads/2021/10/HEERF-II-and-III-Policy.pdf>

CRRSAA (a)(4) and ARP (a)(4) Student Aid Portion Methodology Summary: The institution identified 2 tiers of need for the grants with corresponding amounts called "Exceptional Need" (Pell eligible EFCs & those with extraordinary financial circumstances) and "Need" (EFCs not eligible for Pell, those utilizing need-based aid, & those with considerable financial circumstances). Grant amounts for Exceptional Need and Need are $2,000 and $1,000 respectively.

Students request a grant on the institution's provided form, and students are assigned a tier of need and grant award based on the request and information the institution has on file. Students can appeal and provide additional information to be included in a different tier. Students may appeal and provide information for consideration of an additional $1,000 in the most exceptional and rare circumstances.
